

2015 TASP Pre College Scholarship Winners

Educational Talent Search
Dara Carney-Nedelman
Tusculum College – Jeanne Stokes, Director

Dara graduated from Unicoi County High School in May. She grew up along the banks of the Nolichucky River where my parents, Sue Carney and Dennis Nedelman, run Cherokee Adventures Whitewater Rafting Inc. She's been a member and leader in many clubs, such as 4-H, Girl Scouts, Air Force JROTC, Drama, Mock Trial, and Student Council. She plans to attend University of Tennessee, Knoxville in the fall and major in Public Relations, with an intent to become a Public Affairs Air Force Officer.

Upward Bound
Summer Blevins
ETSU-Johnson City – Dr. Ronnie Gross, Director

Summer graduated from Hampton High School in May. She was in the top 10% in her class and a member of many associations, such as National Honors Society, Beta Club, Student Council, Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), Carter County Clean Teens, Technology Student Association (TSA), and SkillsUSA. She is a state competitor for TSA, and a state and national competitor for FBLA. She plans to attend East Tennessee State University and study engineering.

Upward Bound Math/Science
Domanique Rahman
Upward Bound Math/Science-UT-Chattanooga-Twyler Boykin, Director

Domanique graduated from The Howard School of Academics and Technology in May. During high school, he was inducted into the National Honors Society, he was a member of the Student Council, the track and wrestling teams at his school. He has always been interested in architecture and architectural design. He plans to attend Knox College, in Galesburg, IL and major in pre-architect. His long-term plans are to earn a bachelor's from Knox College and a Master's Degree in Architecture and become licensed architect.